

Washington State Developmental Disabilities Council

DD Council Recruiting for People with Intellectual Disabilities

The Washington State Developmental Disabilities Council is seeking candidates to fill open positions on the Governor-appointed Council.

Who Can Apply

The Council is seeing candidates who are Individuals with Intellectual/Developmental Disabilities (IDD)

The Council is especially interested in candidates from the diverse geographic, ethnic and cultural communities in Washington and the Native American Nations.

Candidates will be interviewed by the DDC Membership Team, however, final selection of members is made by the Governor's office. Members will hold a three-year term and are eligible for reappointment for a second term. The Council covers all expenses, including travel to meetings, meals and lodging.

The Work of the Council

The Washington State Developmental Disabilities Council mission is to advocate, promote and implement policies and practices over the life course to create pathways to meaningful, integrated and productive lives for people with I/DD.
